quire of E. J. Salsberry, Ironton, Mo.

Oh, say; did you know there was to be a Festival at the old School-house to-night

(Wednesday)?

Mrs. C. Kuhn last week presented us with a box of fine strawberries, for which she will please accept our thanks.

To-night (Wednesday),

At the old School-house,

Benefit of M. E. Church.

The song of the locust is more tiresome and inane than ever was any "popular" air—not even excepting "Silver Threads" or "Don't be Angry with Me," etc.

Another change was made in the railroad office at this place last week. Mr. Coleman, agent, was displaced by G. W. Thompson,

Esq., late of Newport, Ark.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.—Valley Lodge, No.

1870, this (Wednesday) evening. A full attendance requested. Assessment No. 82 due to-day. J. W. WILKINSON, Reporter.

Cards, note-heads, letter-heads, bill-heads, etc., neatly executed at this office. We have a new press and are prepared to do as good work, and as cheap, as is done in St. Louis.

Sister Benedict, of the Ursuline Convent at Springfield, Ill., died last Sunday, of consumption. She was known to the world as Miss Rosa Casey, and formerly resided in Postos, Mo.

Ice-Cream and Strawberries! Boys, just think of it; and how much better your "daises" will think of you, just for a little of each! At the old School-house to-night

(Wednesday)!

J. Welch, Esq., Singer Sewing Machine agent, has removed his office to the building partly occupied by W. P. McCarver's saddlery shop, where he will be happy to meet his customers and friends.

There have been wars and rumors of wars in Ironton during the past week, but no bloody noses have yet resulted.

How pleasant 'tis to see

The brethren dwell in unities.

Thanks to Mrs. H. M. Bradley for a dish of the largest, finest strawberries we have seen this year. They were grown in the Captain's garden from plants set out last year, and are a big improvement over the ordinary varieties.

The contract for the foundation of the new schoolhouse was let to our fellow-citizen, A.

Begley, Esq., some weeks since, and he is now busily at work on it. All the rock is on the ground, and the walls will be finished in a short time. And John will do a good job.

A series of fine showers during the past ten days renders all sorts of good crops reason-ably sure—that is, all, excepting fruits. We don't believe our peach crop will amount to anything worth mentioning and it is probable the apple

You, and your "sisters," and your cousins, and your aunts," together with your brothers, uncles, and the rest of the family, are cordially invited to come to the old School-house tonight (Wednesday) and partake of those delicious strawberries and that splendid ice-cream. Given for the benefit of the M. E.

Church. Come, don't be backward.

The plank sidewalk between Carter's livery stable and the depot is a shame and a disgrace to the city. It never was the sort of sidewalk demanded by the convenience of the public, and lately it has become positively dangerous. Whose business is it to have it fixed?

To repair it properly, it ought to be torn up and a new and wider one substituted.

Every householder on Main street is compelled to keep in good repair an eight-foot sidewalk. Is there any good reason why an exception should be made in favor of the highway mentioned? If there is, we would like to know it, and if there isn't, let a proper sidewalk be constructed at once.

THE WAYNE CO. TRAGEDY.—Maj. Yancey writes Judge Emerson as follows, concerning the condition of the two brave officers who were so unfortunately wounded by the outlaws:

"Piedmont, Mo., May 30th, 1881.

"How, J. W. EMERSON, Ironton, Mo.:

"DEAR JUDGE—Your favor 27th inst. rec'd to-day—having gone astray in Greenville mail.

"Hutton and Davis were still alive yesterday evening, but both in a most critical condition.

As was feared, Hutton's wound caused concussion of the brain, resulting in convulsions.

portion of the skull was removed by Drs. Mudd and Pettit, which relieved him for the time being. I fear that both cases may prove fatal."

They have our sincere sympathy.

We take this item from the Charleston (Mo.) Enterprise. Is this the same D. B. Cas-teel whom our people used to know? If it is, we congratulate him upon his evident prosperity. "Talk about your hotels and hotel-keepers, Col. D. B. Cassteel, of Belmont, this country, has the best, finest and neatest kept hotel south of St. Louis, and as far as a manager he cannot be excelled, for he is one of the most enterprising and accommodating men that ever took charge of a hotel. He is now running the R. R. House at Belmont, where you can at all times get first-class rooms, beds and meals. When you go to Belmont don't fail to call and stop with Col. Cas-steel."

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Dr. Villar left last Wednesday for her home in Fredericktown.

Mrs. Sallie Fairchild accompanied her as far as Bismarck.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Aubuchon left on Monday for St. Louis to visit their daughter, Mrs.

Stevens.

Mrs. Richard Nall, of Fredericktown, who has been visiting Mr. G. B. Nall, of this place, left last Monday for her home. She is a very accomplished lady, and won the hearts of all who were so fortunate as to meet her.

Mrs. McCarter went to St. Louis last Friday, returning on Saturday.

Mr. C. Brady spent the latter part of last week in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. G. W. Thompson has been appointed station agent and operator at this place. He has moved Mr. Llewellyn Davis' property and replaced his family here. We extend to them a welcome home.

Misses Rosie Hughes and E. Hampton, accompanied by Messrs. C. Patton and E. T.

Potter, attended the party at Piedmont last

Wednesday.

Mrs. T. H. Moore left last Sunday to De Soto to visit relatives. She will return to this place Wednesday.

Mrs. Harriet B. Chase and family left Monday for Piedmont, where they expect to reside permanently. Mr. Chase is expected home from Montana in about a month.

Judges J. W. Emerson and J. F. T. Edwards returned last Friday from court in Reynolds county.

On Tuesday Mr. E. T. Potter left for Benton, Ark.

Rev. Dr. Wright preached in Poplar Bluff

From Des Arc.

Des Arc, May 30th, 1881.

Ed. Register—

I send you a few items from our little town:

In the first place I will say that we have been blessed with some fine rains lately, and they have helped vegetation very much.

Wheat is looking fine, and corn is growing very fast.

We were agreeably surprised last week by a visit from our old merchants, Messrs.

John V. Hasfner and A. J. Norwine. They could hardly realize that they were ever citizens of this town, as such changes have been made in the past few years. They give encouraging reports from their section. Call again, gentlemen; we are always glad to meet you and talk over the by-gone days, or the early history of Des Arc.

Our town was thrown into wild excitement a few days ago, by some one near the blacksmith shop lying an oyster can full of scrap-iron to Uncle Dick's dog's tail. The dog ran with full speed through town, causing a mule to throw a boy; then ran under a horse, then down to the mill, and Uncle Dick after him, who got hold of the dog under a lumber pile, and the dog's life was saved; but he sticks close to his master since that time. Uncle Dick says he will not be good for the man that tied the cat to the dog's tail if he finds him out. Uncle Dick had better keep him away from blacksmith shops and saloons, as they are not safe places for men to go to, much less dogs.

As our town prospers devilment moves with it. We will have to do something to protect ourselves, or some one will be hurt or very badly scared. Uncle Dick walks out and condemands the peace, but no one cares much for that.

Our friend "Gunboat" is looking better since from stuff and pies have come in. He says if a man goes West looking for business, he should never say he is a Virginian, for they are getting under par here.

W. T. Wagon put his drug store at this place, providing everything works well and the goose hangs high. Bro. Brewington, you will have to commence with your red paint again, as you will have opposition; but don't paint your dogs.

T. P. Fitz is about to find some kinkfolks in Reynolds county. I wonder if they drink.

Our neighbors are all painting their houses, which adds much to the looks of the town.

J. T. Omsandure and family went to the city of St. Louis to-day. G. H. Collins goes to-morrow.

Woolley & Walden are shipping four and five cars of ties from here per day.

Doc. Buchanan, of the Missouri Car and Foundry Company, spent last week here in looking after lumber.

UNCLE ISAAC.

How to Save Money.

In diseases of the Kidney, Bladder, Urinary Organs, and Lame Back, avoid all internal medicines, and plasters, which at best give but temporary relief, and use DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, which will save you annually many times its cost in doctor's bills, plasters and medicines.

CHANCE FORD, Mo., May 22, 1881.

Ed. Register—

Just after returning home from a wedding, we thought it would not be out of place to write you a few lines.

Meeting with many friends and spending several hours with them by eating fine cakes and talking over times that have passed away, makes our hearts leap for joy when fond reollections present themselves to view.

Mr. Joseph Collins and Miss Cordelia Emerson, step-daughter of Mr. C. K. Polk—all of Iron county—were made one in the bonds of matrimony by the Rev. R. Seals. After the marriage services were over the crowd—numbering 50 or 60 people—proceeded to the Marble Creek Church, some two or three hundred yards from Mr. Polk's residence, where Mr. Seals gave his hearers a good square sermon. After opening the services by singing, he proceeded to give out his text, which will be found in the 10th chapter and
